

NCC win Best Exhibition Space at the CN Academic Venue Awards 2018

Nottingham Conference Centre, part of Nottingham Trent University is ecstatic to announce we have won 'Best Exhibition Space' at the esteemed Conference News Academic Venue Awards 2018.

The Academic Venue Awards celebrate the UK's top Academic Venues, bringing them together with event buyers to network, share best practice, highlight progress and celebrate successes.

The 2nd edition of the AVAs took place at University of Birmingham in The Great Hall on Tuesday 27th November.

Commenting on the award Nicola Webb, Sales and Marketing manager of Nottingham Conference Centre, said: "We are absolutely delighted to have won 'Best Exhibition Space' at the CN Academic Venues Awards 2018.

"The AVAs are academic venues most prestigious awards and we are elated that our hard work and excellent service is being recognised. Thank you to Conference News and the judges for awarding us the winners of Best Exhibition space, we believe it is very well deserved."

Nottingham Conference Centre hosts a variety of exhibitions throughout the year ranging from UK PonyCon to The Gin and Rum Festival to National Energy Action sponsored by E.ON.
